Other Info

- Any sponsorship recipient who does not complete the two (2) year employment requirement will be required to repay some of the sponsorship program funding (amount will depend on tuition amount, length of time remaining in program, etc.).
- The scholarship funds will be in the form of an education credit and applied directly to the recipient's NSCC account. If the amount of the credit exceeds the recipient's owing amount, the balance will be credited to the following year of the program. If there is a credit upon graduation, the recipient will be issued a refund for the remaining funds.
- The sponsor reserves the right to revoke the scholarship at any time prior to issuance for reasons including but not limited to: student's failure to maintain enrolment in the program, any form of misconduct, conviction of a crime or for any reason that in the discretion of the sponsor or NSCC would bring the reputation of the sponsor or NSCC into disrepute.
