Because of the nature of the study and practice of the discipline of your program which places students in a position of special trust, the School of Health and Human Services requires you to complete the following question.

Have you been convicted of a criminal offense for which you have not received a pardon?

_____ YES _____ NO

Are you registered with the child abuse registry?

_____ YES _____ NO

Have you ever received a disciplinary action by a regulatory body?

_____ YES _____ NO

Any applicant who responds "YES" to the question regarding criminal offenses will still be considered for the program. However, there will be further inquiry of the applicant's suitability for work in this field and the applicant will be required to provide further information.

Final decision for admission and continuing in the program in this regard rests with the Department Head in consultation with the Dean, School of Health and Human Services.
