June 3, 2025 5:00 PM

Land Acknowledgement

NSCC is located in Mi'kma'ki, the unceded territory and traditional homeland of the Mi'kmaq Nation. Our relationship is based on a series of peace and friendship treaties between the Mi'kmaq Nation and the Crown, dating back to 1725.

As Treaty beneficiaries, we recognize that we are all Treaty People.

Recessional

Please rise as you are able when the academic procession enters and remain standing until the conclusion of O Canada.

Please remain at your seats until the platform party and graduates have exited.

Music during the presentation of credentials is arranged and produced by NSCC Music Arts faculty Tom Easley and Bill Stevenson.

Please join us after the ceremony for a reception in honour of our graduates, presented by NSCC Alumni Relations.

About the Mi'kmaq Honour Song

The Mi'kmaq Honour Song is a powerful, unifying symbol of the resilience and enduring spirit of the Mi'kmaq people. Composed by Elder George Paul of Metepenagiag, the Mi'kmaq Honour Song calls on L'nu people to honour who they are.

Performed through song, chanting and hand drumming during ceremonies and gatherings, it calls on ancestors for spiritual guidance and holds a strong message to help and respect one another. It encourages pride in Mi'kmaq culture and traditions - so they are preserved, shared and celebrated for generations to come.

The Mi'kmaq Honour Song is performed during NSCC Convocation ceremonies as an important part of the College's commitment to reconciliation, community, cultural awareness and inclusivity.

Don Bureaux

Message from the NSCC President

Graduates,

Today, we recognize and celebrate your perseverance, your dedication to your studies, the commitments you've maintained, the challenges you've overcome, the connections you've made - and so much more.

Your journey as an NSCC student began the moment you chose to make a change in your life: to learn more, to grow, and to pursue something new. That powerful decision led you here - to become a student who worked hard, stayed focused and kept showing up. It wasn't always easy, but you've proven that you can do it.

While today marks the culmination of your efforts and achievements, it also marks the beginning of a new and exciting chapter - as NSCC graduates. I encourage you to trust the same determination that carried you through your studies, and to take your new skills, knowledge, and experiences forward with confidence. Whatever positive steps you take next, know that we are so proud of you.

On behalf of all of us at NSCC, congratulations class of 2025!

Convocation 2025

Honorary Diplomas

NSCC is pleased to award Honorary Diplomas to these outstanding individuals who demonstrate true leadership in their field and community.

James Kehoe

School of Trades and Transportation

Sydney Waterfront Campus

James Kehoe's dedication to building strong communities extends far beyond his successful career in the construction industry.

Jim's began his career as a carpenter before founding Joneljim Concrete Construction in 1970. Under his leadership, Joneljim has grown into one of Cape Breton's largest contractors, providing general contracting, project and construction management, and heavy civil contracting. The Joneljim Group of Companies also includes building supply operations, a millwork business and residential and commercial rental properties.

Jim is a founding member of New Dawn Enterprises and the not-for-profit, BCA Investment Cooperative. He has served on the Board of the IWK Children's Hospital, Cape Breton University's Board of Governors, Nova Scotia Business Inc., Talbot House, and the Financial Board for the Diocese of Antigonish.

Jim's contributions have been recognized through one of the Province's highest honours. In 2002, he was awarded the Order of Nova Scotia for his outstanding contributions to the province's economic well-being. In 2023, Jim was inducted into the Cape Breton Business and Philanthropy Hall of Fame, further celebrating his dedication to the region. In 2018 he received an Honourary Doctorate from Cape Breton University.

Over the years, Jim and his late wife Roma were involved in many philanthropic efforts here in Cape Breton and across Nova Scotia. A proud father to two daughters, Claudette Porter and Paulette Kraitzek, and grandfather to four, Jim cherishes time spent with his family.

Through his leadership and commitment to his community, Jim's dedication to empowering others and fostering growth continues to inspire positive change across Nova Scotia.

Joel Marsman

School of Trades and Transportation

Akerley Campus

Joel Marsman's dedication to occupational health and safety, mentorship and community empowerment has left a lasting impact on Nova Scotia. His achievements, including becoming the first Black person in Canada to earn the Canadian Registered Safety Professional (CRSP) designation, have paved the way for others.

He has served as coordinator for the Black Business Initiative's Constructing the Future program, an initiative aimed at helping African Nova Scotians enter the construction trade. As Program Coordinator for the Africadian Empowerment Academy's Trades Program, he helped Black tradespeople obtain Red Seal certification and supports like training and test preparation to foster their success. He was also involved with the Pathways to Shipbuilding program, where he was part of a working group that created a dedicated training and employment pipeline for Black welders.

Joel was the Manager of Occupational Health and Safety at the Nova Scotia Department of Transportation before founding Marsman Safety Services, where he provides program development and occupational health and safety training for industry organizations and government agencies.

His contributions extend to serving on boards for various organizations including the Nova Scotia Construction Safety Association, the Nova Scotia Apprenticeship Board, the Nova Scotia Labour Department Board and the Canadian Society of Safety Engineering.

In 2012, Joel was honoured by the African Heritage Month Information Network and the Province of Nova Scotia as an "Unsung Hero: Men Who Make a Difference."

Joel's unwavering commitment to the success of others exemplifies NSCC's vision: Transforming Nova Scotia one learner at a time.

Class of 2025

This program is printed in advance of Convocation ceremonies. As a result, the names of graduates recorded in the program are those who were approved to graduate at the time of printing. It is possible a graduate's name may not be recorded if a late approval (after the print deadline) has been made.

Convocation 2025

Valedictorians

NSCC is proud to introduce the outstanding students, chosen by their campuses to represent the achievements and experiences of the Class of 2025.

Ashley Nickerson

School of Health and Human Services

Diploma in Practical Nursing

Before coming to NSCC, Ashley was already a dedicated caregiver – at home as a full-time mom to her two children, and professionally as a doula, prenatal educator and home support worker. She always knew she wanted to make a difference in people's lives. Nursing, she realized, was where compassion met skill, and it was the natural next step in her journey.

Ashley chose the Practical Nursing program at Burridge Campus because it offered more than convenience – it offered understanding. The flexible schedule, affordability and supportive environment made it possible for her to pursue her education while continuing to care for her family.

At NSCC, she found a deeply meaningful learning experience. Her instructors were genuinely invested in students' success and created a space where critical thinking and compassion could thrive together. She found strength in her classmates, especially her friend Vanessa, who showed up each day with resilience, empathy and a shared sense of purpose. Together, they encouraged one another through challenges and celebrated every victory, big and small.

Ashley says Burridge Campus felt like home: from the welcoming library and friendly staff to the cafeteria's famously delicious cinnamon buns. It's a place of warmth and belonging.

After graduation, Ashley will begin her nursing career at Yarmouth Regional Hospital with future plans to become a nursing educator.

She offers this advice to the Class of 2025: "Success isn't about being the smartest in the room – it's about showing up with integrity, asking for help when you need it and trusting that growth takes time. You belong here."

Allison Riewe

School of Health and Human Services

Certificate in Continuing Care

Allison never expected that chasing her dreams would one day mean moving from North Carolina to a rural community in Nova Scotia – and now she's putting down roots and calling the east coast 'home.' Following a career as an activity director in a skilled nursing facility, she arrived in Shelburne, bringing with her energy, compassion and a clear sense of purpose.

Already experienced in healthcare, Allison was drawn to the Continuing Care program for its blend of hands-on learning and human connection. What she didn't expect was how deeply the program would ground her. Her instructors balanced high expectations with flexibility and unwavering support, and her classmates became an unexpected but cherished source of belonging.

As a newcomer to the region, Allison says she was prepared to stay on the sidelines, but her classmates wouldn't let that happen. They welcomed her, uplifted her, inspired her and made an unfamiliar place feel like home. She found herself not only learning, but thriving, and with the additional support from her partner Morgan, she began gaining a new sense of confidence.

After graduation, Allison plans to work as a CCA in Nova Scotia, pursue her Permanent Residency and eventually bridge into the LPN program at Truro Campus. She plans to continue being an advocate for accessible and quality healthcare in rural communities.

Her advice to the Class of 2025: "Never underestimate the impact of community. Know your worth and find people who see it within you."
