

REPORT TO THE COMMUNITY 2012

Nova Scotia Community College's impact on our province is too great to share only once a year, so we've made our annual Report to the Community an ongoing source of 'stories worth sharing'. Our website nscnow.ca is filled with stories of Nova Scotians whose NSCC experience has helped shape opportunities for them, their families, their businesses and communities. Here you will find some of the highlights from 2012, including the year's Financial Statements, but please be sure to visit nscnow.ca regularly to discover more.
