Every journey is a story

There are more than 25,000 students at NSCC, each with a story to tell. There are stories of sacrifice, of newfound confidence and of the unbridled joy that exists when people are exposed to the transformative magic of learning. Every week, at nscnow.ca, we share the journeys and stories of those whose NSCC experience is changing their lives and having an impact on their community. Here you will find some of the highlights from 2013, including the year's Financial Statements.

Crafting legacies

"Everything I wanted came full circle," says Evan. "I got to work with my dad, the person I've looked up to my whole life, and do something that would make my children proud." Read more

Renewing dreams

"We were able to do homework together," says the NSCC Waterfront Campus Business Administration graduate. "My 14 year-old and I had some friendly competitions for grades." Read more

Supporting healthier communities

"All of us have been touched by cancer, whether it's family or friends," says Sarah. "I knew screening rates were low and this study inspired me to find out why." Read more
