

1. I cannot remember my Student ID. Where do I go?

You can provide the proper identification to Student Services or the Business Office and receive your ID.

2. I do not have access to MyNSCC.

If you do not have access to MyNSCC, please visit the Business Office or Student Services to determine T2202A access eligibility.

3. I know my ID and I know I am eligible, yet I still cannot login to MyNSCC

In the event that you require a password reset, you may do the following:

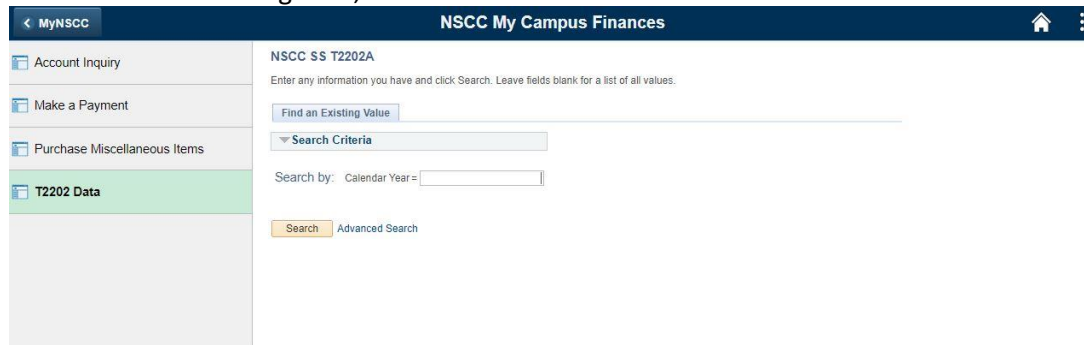

- If enrolled in the Password Management Tool (PMT) you will have the ability to reset your own password at <https://ournscc.nsc.ca/pwreset> (Use the reset password option).
- If you have supplied the College with an alternate email address you may contact your Student Services Office to have your password reset and sent to the alternate address.
- If an alternate address has not been supplied, please visit your nearest Campus Centre for Student Services Office with photo ID to have the password reset.

4. How do I access my T2202A data online?

The T2202A forms are available through MyNSCC. From the MyNSCC homepage, click My Campus Finances.

From the left-side navigation, select 'T2202A Data'

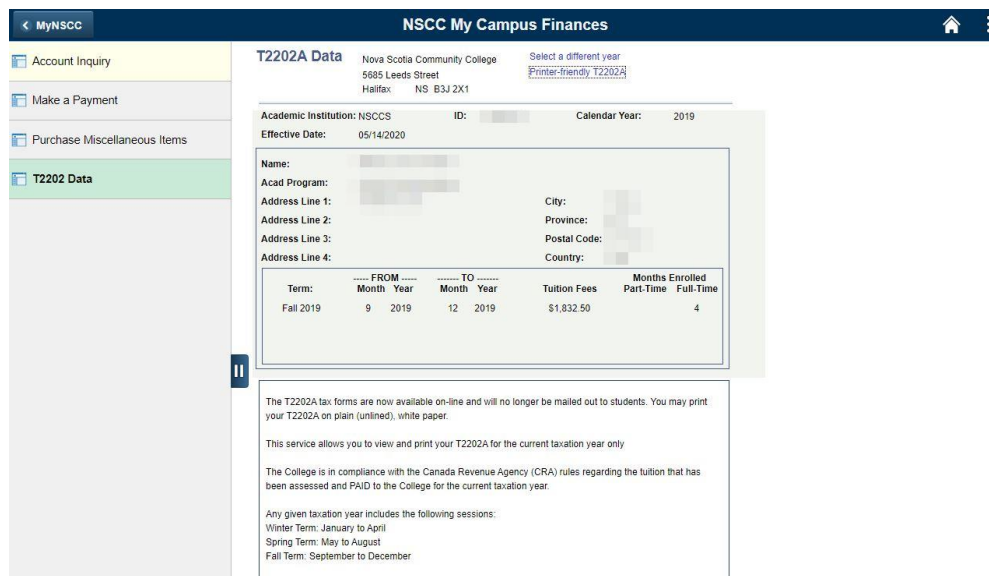

Click Search to display links for each year you are eligible for a T2202, and click on the year you wish to see.
