Limitless

Limitless works with incarcerated individuals to upgrade their education while in prison and then to enter a core program at NSCC once they are released.

The program provides a variety of supports, including financial aid and student advising for students once they arrive at NSCC so students are set up for success.

Benefits to participants:

- Helps break the cycle of incarceration
- Opportunity to pursue a new career
- Financial support while at NSCC
- Resume building upon graduation
