Note about the photos in the NSCC International 2022 Results Report: Because of the exciting return to travel in 2022, we were able to include photos of our students and employees abroad as well as international student activities here in Nova Scotia. We have featured some of the most inspirational participants of the past year's activities highlighting the theme of "Go Learn Grow". They all have stories to tell about the impact of international learning at NSCC.

Message from NSCC President Don Bureaux

Having an international lens on NSCC's mission to build Nova Scotia's economy and quality of life through education and innovation is essential. Closely aligning NSCC's internationalization goals with provincial priorities for immigration, and global competitiveness by enhancing international learning opportunities for students and employees is part of how NSCC is focused on the future of learning.

Connecting NSCC's international work with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals will further enhance our impact on the economy and quality of life in Nova Scotia and with our partners around the world.

We should all take pride in the accomplishments over the past year that are outlined in the NSCC International Results Report. Our international impact at NSCC is delivering broader long-term benefits for all Nova Scotians.

NSCC President

About NSCC International

NSCC International provides leadership for internationalization at NSCC.

The NSCC International team leads initiatives from three pillars:

1. Immigrant and international student experience;
2. Global skills opportunities and international exchanges for students and employees; and
3. Externally funded technical assistance projects where employees can apply their skills with international partner institutions.

Vision

NSCC students and employees will have a strengthened global world view through experiential international learning opportunities at home and abroad.

NSCC will be an important part of changing culture and attitudes in Nova Scotia, creating welcoming communities for immigrants.

Role

In collaboration with other NSCC departments:

- Link to provincial, national and international networks, standards, practices and opportunities
- Identify and evaluate opportunities with partner institutions
- Develop proposals for external funding
- Promote opportunities and the selection process for students and employees
- Manage risk
- Ensure successful project design, development, implementation and management
- Build capacity and share knowledge with employees and students

Themes

Province of Nova Scotia
immigration targets

“To grow Nova Scotia’s population to 2 million by 2060,
the Province aims to attract 25,000 newcomers per year.”

(Government of Nova Scotia; Premier’s Office, 2021, para. 5)

In 2021, EduNova celebrated five years of the Study & Stay™ program, with a retention rate of 89% of participants (including from NSCC) living and working in Nova Scotia after graduation. In 2022, the program will be expanded to create more opportunities for international students studying in Nova Scotia.

(EduNova, 2021)

NSCC Strategic Plan 2022

(Nova Scotia Community College, 2022, pp. 11-12)

Priority areas of impact:

1. Climate change

- integrate the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals into all aspects of our institution
- help Nova Scotians prepare for climate change related careers

2. Future of work

- Educate and empower a diverse skilled workforce to help Nova Scotia compete

3. Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, Accessibility & Anti-Racism

- Grow and sustain a culture of equity, diversity, accessibility & anti-racism

4. Evolving social fabric

- Propel and foster the success of our communities through impactful relationships and innovative social infrastructure

CICan International Strategy 2022

(Colleges & Institutes Canada, 2022, para. 3)

Pillar 1: Future proof Canada and the world

- Enhance outbound mobility
- Strengthen the sector (capacity building and knowledge sharing on internationalization)

Pillar 2: Bring Canada to the world

- College specific recruitment events – for market diversification and partnership development
- Improve transitions to labour market for international students

Pillar 3: Taking Canada to the world

- Strengthen international development cooperation
- Respond to global sustainable development goals such as climate change & gender equality
- Develop new opportunities in transnational education (eg. international joint credentials and articulation agreements)

"This program in St. Kitts was so important to me because a lot of people of African descent here in Nova Scotia don't see ourselves reflected in the classroom, so going to a predominately Black country inspired me to become a better teacher to make all children feel seen in the classroom."

"My passion for renewable energy is leading me to create and develop curriculum for countries around the world through NSCC International. As part of the team developing an exciting new program on renewable energy and energy efficiency in Belize, we have built an environment of creativity, innovation, and teamwork. This program is important to grow the country's "Green Economy."

“Being from a different country and having the opportunity to work on international projects as part of my role at NSCC has been extremely rewarding. Spending time in Kenya has enabled me to not only learn about their culture, but also understand how creativity, diversity of ideas and teamwork can create a productive learning space that will ultimately make the industry more embracing and attractive to young Kenyans.”

A man with glasses and a black t-shirt is holding a glowing lightbulb over a yellow toy car. The t-shirt has a graphic that says "DRIVE ME CRAZY!". He is standing in front of a corkboard with several colorful posters pinned to it. One poster features a woman's face with flowers, another says "COFFEE", and another says "MARITIME CONSERVATORY".

"NSCC offers a lot of supports to international students from housing to academic counselling to EAL resources. I believe that all these supports are the reason international students thrive in Nova Scotia. I'm so happy to be part of this awesome community."

Over the past year, we have returned to in-person international learning exchanges and projects. The NSCC International team and NSCC students and staff and our partners overseas have worked tirelessly to ensure safe and interactive international learning in this transition time of the pandemic. I am so grateful for all this hard work and look forward to the future.
